

Big Plans For 'Mother Goose' Festival In Cleveland Square Friday Evening

MRS. J. A. FORTER, as Robin Hood, and her band of robbers in the person of well-known El Paso girls and matrons—Misses Grace Stuart, Gladys Dunbar, Betty Ferguson, Bijou Clements, Carey Henry, Dorothy Morrison, Ruth Heppner, Lucile Soltner, Helen Soltner, Juanita Williams, Mariana Brown, Ruth Brown, Gladys Bally, Lois Bailey, Lois Heppner, Ruth Orendorf, Alice Orendorf, and several "marrieds"—will take an important part in Friday's big Mother Goose festival, to be held in Cleveland square from 8 p. m. to 10 o'clock, for the benefit of raising funds for maintaining a hospital bed in Neulilly, France.

The children of the Confederacy, under the direction of Wade Hampton chapter, U. D. C., are responsible for this gay carnival, for which all the favorite rhymes of childhood will come to life and do their bit. The big animated pageant is to open with "America" and "The Marcellaine," the ensemble singing to be directed by Mrs. May Loefer. Then the Rev. Percy H. Knickerbocker will explain in detail the import of the event. The music and net which were offered for the largest amount of money taken in from the advance sale of tickets are to be awarded by Rev. W. H. Fairley.

Then Miss Nina Lockie is to give a clever "Story Book" by way of introducing the characters of old Mother Goose, who instantly will appear on the platform and group themselves about the "old woman who lives in her shoe." When their

Catholic Women Giving Dance To Aid In Furnishing Hall For The Soldiers

WOMEN of the Catholic faith are giving a big dance this evening in Knights of Columbus hall for the purpose of raising funds to furnish the Knights of Columbus hall, now being erected at Fort Bliss, under direction of chaplain Timothy J. O'Keefe and a committee from the local council of the Knights of Columbus.

In connection with the dance, a number of women will preside over a festival on the outside of the hall, where ice cream and other refreshments will be served.

The affair is being given under the auspices of the chapter to the Catholic chaplain's overseas work.

Everything else has been called off the social calendar that there will be no confusion in the dance. The music for the dancing will be furnished by Raye Royce's band.

The women's society of the R. of L. F. and E. is holding its 15th anniversary ball in Cotton hall tonight.

Many Interesting Programs Planned For Soldiers In Camp During Week

PROGRAMS have been arranged at the various posts by G. A. Graham, of the Y. M. C. A. staff:

Tuesday, Sept. 2, a religious vesper service.

Monday, Sept. 3, Miss Mary Heermans will direct an entertainment.

Tuesday, Sept. 10, athletics.

Wednesday, Sept. 11, Miss Dorothy Crane's program.

Saturday, Sept. 14, Miss Mary Heermans' final program before she leaves for school in the east.

The men at Camp Corcoran are entertaining all the artists who recently appeared there at "chow" and "jinks" Friday night of this week.

Mrs. Walter Christie presented a program for the men at San Elizario Tuesday night. Several readers and musicians motoring out to the hospital little spot to assist in bringing joy to the isolated post inhabitants.

Seventh Cavalrymen On Border Duty At San Elizario Are Given A Program

G. A. GRAHAM talked on the new est gains on the lines, "over there" to the men of the 7th Cavalry, at the San Elizario, Tuesday night, when Mrs. J. Walter Christie took a number of local artists out to entertain the men—one of the series in the Y. M. C. A. program. A most enthusiastic reception was extended the musicians, Col. Thompson being present in person to thank the 11th Cavalrymen for their service. As did the ukulele girls, Miss Harriet Heermans, Margaret Harlow and Beatrice Hillis, who always win an ovation. Mrs. C. O. Tucker, in negro dialect readings, was called back five times, and Mrs. D. V. Penney, with her violin, also came in for much applause.

Miss Elvira Galante, who the plaudits of the men and Mrs. Christie also contributed enjoyable numbers. Miss Mary Heermans and Miss Hillis did the accompanying in their usual fashion. A quartet of soldier boys—Nesbit, Walter J. Buesner, Ralph Hankins, Otto Cordes, Wesley Oliver and Henry Burks—did some fine singing and Sgt. Brown, of Troop B, told an interesting story after another. Mrs. S. C. Aubrey, Mrs. Harry Schatz and Mr. Graham furnished cars.
